BALANCING INCOME, RISK AND UNCERTAINTY WITH MUNICIPAL BONDS

CFP / I-W

With interest rates at historically low levels, investors still have a pressing need to find reasonable income. Invesco's municipal investment leaders will discuss how advisors and investors can use different investment solutions to balance the need for income with the realities of managing risk in an uncertain climate.

Stephanie Larosiliere, Head of Municipal Business Strategies and Development, Invesco

2:40-3:15 PM

MANAGING YOUR TEAMS, CLIENTS, AND INVESTMENT PROCESS IN THE YEAR TO COME

I-W

In this interactive panel discussion, top advisors will share insights on how they are evolving and adapting their approaches to create better client outcomes and sustained growth in their business. Conversation topics will include how to strategize your business plan, team structure, client service, and investments in an unpredictable market.

Patti Brennan, Key Financial Inc.

Peter Rohr, Merrill Private Wealth Management

ELECTION 2020: WHAT NOW?

CFP / I-W

As we await the outcome of the 2020 presidential election, advisors and investors are anticipating the results, and worrying about its impact on the market to determine their next move. But what happens after November 3rd? While the election will have a significant impact on the country, we want to provide some caution from drawing too many links between who's occupying the White House and the performance of the stock market. In this session, we will share historical perspectives and data on the impact of politics on investing as well as current developments in the political landscape.

Brian Levitt, Global Market Strategist, Invesco

3:50-4:00 PM
